Andrejko needs to go

Dear Editor:

The latest outrage of Lisa Andrejko, QSD superintendent cuts it for me. It's time for her to go. Insubordinate in disobeying her Board (and the board did nothing). Continuing the spending when she had a singular opportunity to PAINLESSLY cut with 40 retirements. Lying to the public that spending can't go above a state limit (wait till this years budget) – they only need to ask for an exception from the state. Helping elect HER Board in the form of assisting Linda Martin using Public School assets.

The latest? Using public school facilities to promote Hillary while surreptitiously cutting out McCain. Thank you Richard Woldow. Wake up people. As for me, I will support School Director Wannabes that will move to getting REAL leadership in QSD.

QCEI help to educ

Even when the economy is “normal,” money is tight when it comes to education, public or private. For decades, colleges and universities have raised funds through alumni and business donations to supplement student tuition. In the 21st century, the same type of model
